Poem #12

Poem #12 "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night" by Dylan Thomas Do not go gentle into that good night, Old age should burn and rave at close of day; Rage, rage against the dying of the light Though wise men at their end know dark is right, Because their words had forked no lightning they Do not go gentle into that good night

Poem #8 - Mensa for Kids

And admirably schooled in every grace: In fine, we thought that he was everything To make us wish that we were in his place So on we worked, and waited for the light, And went without the meat, and cursed the bread: And Richard Cory, one calm summer night, Went home and put a bullet through his head
